

ADDENDUM TO APEE 2022 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

MONDAY, APRIL 4, 2022

Session 2.A.2 – Panelist remarks updated: “Ten Questions about Affirmative Action We Have Answered – and Ten Important Questions We Need to Answer” replaces “Misguided: How Affirmative Action Hurts Students It’s Intended to Help, and Why Universities Won’t Admit It” by Richard Sandler (University of California, Los Angeles). “The Problematic History and Future of Racial Classification” replaces “What Is Your Race? The Census and Our Flawed Efforts to Classify Americans” by Stephen Slivinski (Pacific Legal Foundation).

Session 2.A.6 – Paper presenter updated: David Mitchell (University of Central Arkansas) replaces Moiz Bhai (University of Arkansas at Little Rock) for paper “Scope of Practice Regulation: Transmission to Supply.”

Session 2.A.8 – Paper removed: “Better than the Alternative: Free Markets and Christianity” authored by Gregory Wolcott (Institute for Humane Studies). Paper added: “Reconciling Persons and Profits” authored by Gregory Robson (Iowa State University).

Session 2.A.12 – Session removed. Paper reassigned: “Prohibitions, Non-compliance, and Informal Social Control on Campus during the Pandemic” authored by Sydney Yanick (Trinity College) to Session 2.E.1.

Session 2.C.3 – Session moved to 3.C.3 time and location.

Session 2.C.4 – Discussant added: James Gwartney (Florida State University).

Session 2.C.7 – Papers added: “Preserving History, Private Actions, and Public Barriers: The Cases of Segovia and Antigua Guatemala” authored by Alberto Garín (Universidad Francisco Marroquín) and “The Community Commitment to Sustainability: Environment and Forest Protection in Guatemala” authored by Santiago Fernández (Universidad Francisco Marroquín) from Session 3.A.4.

Session 2.C.11 – Session removed. Papers reassigned: “Expressive Voting and the Bitter Angels of Our Nature” coauthored by Cecil E. Bohanon (Ball State University), Todd M. Nesbit (Ball State University), and Dwight R. Lee (Ball State University) and “Fiscal Recklessness, Path Dependence, and Expressive Voting” co-authored by Michael DeBow (Samford University) and Dwight R. Lee (Ball State University) to Session 2.F.6.

Session 2.C.13 – Paper added: “Can Dollarization Constrain a Populist Leader? The Case of Rafael Correa in Ecuador” coauthored by Nicolas Cachanosky (Metropolitan State University of Denver), Alexander William Salter (Texas Tech University), and Ignacio Savanti (Universidad del CEMA) from Session 2.F.7.

Session 2.E.1 – Chair updated: Sanford Ikeda (Purchase College, State University of New York) replaces Alberto Mingardi (IULM University & Istituto Bruno Leoni). Paper removed: “Hayek, Oakeshott, Rustow: Reading the Critics of Rationalism in the Pandemic” authored by Alberto Mingardi (IULM University & Istituto Bruno Leoni). Paper added: “Prohibitions, Non-compliance, and Informal Social Control on Campus during the Pandemic” authored by Sydney Yanick (Trinity College) from Session 2.A.12.

Session 2.E.3 – Paper removed: “Private Governance in the Bitcoin and Ethereum Networks” coauthored by David Waugh (American Institute for Economic Research) and Amelia Janaskie (American Institute for Economic Research). Paper added: “A Flash of Alertness: Flash Loans as Capital-free Kirznerian Entrepreneurship” coauthored by David Waugh (American Institute for Economic Research) and Amelia Janaskie (American Institute for Economic Research), and Thomas Hogan (American Institute for Economic Research).

Session 2.E.6 – Panelists removed: Sandra J. Peart (University of Richmond) and Ali Khan (Johns Hopkins University).

Session 2.E.8 – Panelist removed: Anne R. Bradley (The Fund for American Studies). Panelist added: Rachel Ferguson (Concordia University Chicago).

Session 2.E.9 – Paper removed: “Multidisciplinary Study Abroad in Uruguay” authored by Levi A. Russell (Ottawa University).

Session 2.E.12 – Coauthors corrected: “Do Public Libraries Help Mitigate Crime? Natural Experiment from Kansas City, MO” coauthored by Shishir Shakya (Shippensburg University), Amir Neto (Florida Gulf Coast University), and Jennifer Nowicki (Florida Gulf Coast University).

Session 2.F.1 – Paper removed: “The EU in COVID Times: Leviathan or Good Governance?” authored by Barbara Kolm (Austrian Economics Center).

ADDENDUM TO APEE 2022 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Session 2.F.6 – Paper presenter updated: Stefan K. Sløk-Madsen (Center for Politiske Studier) replaces Henrik M. Nielsen (Center for Politiske Studier) for paper “From Liberal to Social Institutional Logics: How a Failed State Organization Saved Itself.” Discussants removed: Balder Asmussen (Vestfyns Blå Gymnasium), Nicolas Marques (Institut Economique Molinari), and Nicolas Marques (Institut Economique Molinari). Papers removed: “The History of Swedish Welfare Economics” authored by Björn Hasselgren (Timbro) and “Outcompeting Voluntarily: The Case of French Social Protection” authored by Nicolas Marques (Institut Economique Molinari). Papers added: “Expressive Voting and the Bitter Angels of Our Nature” co-authored by Cecil E. Bohanon (Ball State University), Todd M. Nesbit (Ball State University), and Dwight R. Lee (Ball State University) and “Fiscal Recklessness, Path Dependence, and Expressive Voting” co-authored by Michael DeBow (Samford University) and Dwight R. Lee (Ball State University) from Session 2.C.11.

Session 2.F.7 – Session removed. Paper reassigned: “Can Dollarization Constrain a Populist Leader? The Case of Rafael Correa in Ecuador” coauthored by Nicolas Cachanosky (Metropolitan State University of Denver), Alexander William Salter (Texas Tech University), and Ignacio Savanti (Universidad del CEMA) to Session 2.C.13.

Session 2.F.8 – Paper removed: “France over Rome: Anti-Rome Sentiment and the Effect on French Catholicism during the Revolution” authored by Patrick Ruben Fitzsimmons (George Mason University).

Session 2.F.10 – Paper removed: “TikTok Econ” authored by Derek D’Angelo (Michigan Council for Economic Education). Paper added: “Test-Optional Admissions and Student Debt” coauthored by Sean E. Mulholland (Western Carolina University) and Alexia Bevers (Western Carolina University) from Session 3.F.12.

Session 2.G.3 – Paper removed: “Bills of Exchange and Bitcoin: A Set of Case Studies from Medieval Europe to Help Inform Our Approach to Cybergovernance in the 21st Century” authored by George Tracey (American Institute for Economic Research).

Session 2.G.9 – Paper presenter updated: Marianna Davidovich (Foundation for Economic Education) replaces Derek D’Angelo (Michigan Council for Economic Education) for paper “Fee in the Classroom.”

Session 2.G.10 – Coauthor added: “From Liberal to Social Institutional Logics: How a Failed State Organization Saved Itself” coauthored by Katherine Swartz Hilton (University of South Carolina), now paper presenter, and Dirk Brown (University of South Carolina).

Session 2.G.13 – Paper removed: “Why Do We Use Fiat Money? Dollar vs. Dollar Invested” authored by Daniel Fernández (Universidad Francisco Marroquín).

TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 2022

Session 3.A.4 – Session removed. Papers reassigned: “Preserving History, Private Actions, and Public Barriers: The Cases of Segovia and Antigua Guatemala” authored by Alberto Garín (Universidad Francisco Marroquín) and “The Community Commitment to Sustainability: Environment and Forest Protection in Guatemala” authored by Santiago Fernández (Universidad Francisco Marroquín) to Session 2.C.7.

Session 3.A.6 – Paper added: “Determinants of Regulation Reform: Scope of Practice and Medical Licensure” authored by Agnitra Roy Choudhury (Auburn University Montgomery) from Session 3.F.7. Affiliation updated: Labanyalata Roy to Kennesaw State University.

Session 3.A.7 – Panelist removed: Sandra J. Peart (University of Richmond).

Session 3.A.8 – Chair updated: Jeremy Jackson (North Dakota State University) replaces Vance Ginn (Texas Public Policy Foundation). Paper removed: “Tradeoffs between Property and Consumption Taxes: Examining Texas’s Tax System” authored by Vance Ginn (Texas Public Policy Foundation).

Session 3.A.9 – Session removed.

Session 3.A.10 – Paper presenter updated: Marianna Davidovich (Foundation for Economic Education) replaces Joshua Mitton (California Council on Economic Education) for paper “Tackling the High-Inflation-Unemployment Malaise in the U.S. Economy.”

Session 3.A.12 – Paper title updated: “Declining Academic Quality in Higher Education” replaces “The Future of Higher Education” authored by Jenna Robinson (The James G. Martin Center for Academic Renewal).

Session 3.C.1 – Panelist removed: Samuel Gregg (Acton Institute).

ADDENDUM TO APEE 2022 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Session 3.C.2 – Paper presenter updated: Hairuo Tan (George Mason University) replaces Sebastian Rodriguez (George Mason University) for paper “Approaches to Property Rights: A Comparative Study of Francisco Suárez and Francis Hutcheson.”

Session 3.C.3 – Session moved to 2.C.3 time and location.

Session 3.C.8 – Paper presenter updated: Cameron Harwick (The College at Brockport, State University of New York) replaces Julia Norgaard (Pepperdine University) for paper “Monopolies, Supply Chains, and Crime.”

Session 3.E.3 – Panelist removed: Abigail Devereaux (Wichita State University).

Session 3.E.8 – Coauthor added: “The Effect of Prescription Drug Monitoring Programs on County-Level Opioid Prescribing Practices and Spillovers” coauthored by Shishir Shakya (Shippensburg University) and Jane Ruseski (West Virginia University).

Session 3.E.13 – Paper added: “Increasing Barriers to Entry in the Sex Service Marketplace” authored by Rainita Narender (Claremont Graduate University) from Session 3.G.13. Discussants updated: Bryan C. McCannon (West Virginia University) replaces Minjae Yun (Claremont Graduate University). Discussant added: Alex Tsiukes (West Virginia University).

Session 3.F.1 – Affiliation updated: Dan Levy to Advanced Analytical Consulting Group, Inc.

Session 3.F.6 – Paper removed: “Adam Smith’s Invisible Hands: A Taxonomy of Spontaneous Orders in ‘The Wealth of Nations’ and ‘The Theory of Moral Sentiments’” authored by Alexander Schaefer (New York University).

Session 3.F.7 – Session removed. Paper reassigned: “Determinants of Regulation Reform: Scope of Practice and Medical Licensure” authored by Agnitra Roy Choudhury (Auburn University Montgomery) to Session 3.A.6.

Session 3.F.11 – Paper removed: “An Economic Analysis of the Conservation Reserve Program and Organic Agriculture” authored by Hannah Wing (Montana State University).

Session 3.F.12 – Session removed. Paper reassigned: “Test-Optional Admissions and Student Debt” coauthored by Sean E. Mulholland (Western Carolina University) and Alexia Bevers (Western Carolina University) to Session 2.F.10.

Session 3.F.13 – Papers removed: “Criminal Decarceration Policies and the Effect on Community Safety” authored by Minjae Yun (Claremont Graduate University) and “Where the Rubber Meets the Road: Pavement Damage Reduces Traffic Safety and Speed” authored by Alex Cardazzi (West Virginia University). Papers added: “Letter Grading Government Corruption” authored by Alex Tsiukes (West Virginia University), “Sexual Assault on Campus: The Impact of the Women’s Gymnastics Scandal on Michigan State” authored by Kaleigh Strohl (University of South Carolina), and “The Right to Counsel: Criminal Prosecution in 19th Century London” authored by Bryan C. McCannon (West Virginia University) from Session 3.G.13. Discussants added: Morgan Elaine Stockham (Claremont Graduate University) and Kole Reddig (West Virginia University).

Session 3.G.6 – Paper added: “Financial Market Inefficiency and Meme Stocks: Evidence from the GME Short Squeeze” authored by Anthony Clark (Montana State University).

Session 3.G.13 – Session removed. Papers reassigned: “Increasing Barriers to Entry in the Sex Service Marketplace” authored by Rainita Narender (Claremont Graduate University) to Session 3.E.13, “Letter Grading Government Corruption” authored by Alex Tsiukes (West Virginia University), “Sexual Assault on Campus: The Impact of the Women’s Gymnastics Scandal on Michigan State” authored by Kaleigh Strohl (University of South Carolina), and “The Right to Counsel: Criminal Prosecution in 19th Century London” authored by Bryan C. McCannon (West Virginia University) to Session 3.F.13. Discussant removed: Alex Cardazzi (West Virginia University).